I testify in front of Allah (swt) that the information provided herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge. I understand that an application is not a guarantee of financial aid. I also understand that receipt of regular financial aid (more than once per 12 month period) may be dependent upon proof of registration and enrollment in local, city, and state services as requested by the Zakat Committee. I also understand that falsification of information in the application is grounds for denial as well as forfeiture from any future financial assistance.
